Wednesday, April 5:

Finca Torremilanos in Ribera del Duero

Winemaker Vincente Peñalba

will join us at Renegade Wines from the iconic biodynamic winery in Ribera del Duero, Finca Torremilanos.

Founded in 1903, the 200-hectare Finca Torremilanos in Aranda de Duero is the second-oldest wine-producing estate in what is now Ribera del Duero DO (after Vega Sicilia).

Pilar Pérez Albéniz, one of the most respected women in the region and winner of the inaugural 'Ribera Heritage' Award in 2019, is still at the helm, with two of her sons, Ricardo and Vicente, handling winemaking and sales respectively. The first-ever Demeter-certified biodynamic winery in the appellation, as of 2015. A family-run gem that marches to the beat of its own drummer in producing both traditionally-styled and experimental wines.
